
AP Human Geography

AP Human Geography

During this AP Human Geography APSI, you'll explore the course framework, the exam, and the new AP resources that will help you plan and focus instruction—and give you feedback throughout the year on the areas where individual students need additional focus. You'll also learn about completing the digital activation process at the start of the school year that will give you immediate access to the new resources and will help ensure that your students can register for AP Exams by the new fall deadlines. By attending this APSI, you'll gain deeper insight into the following key takeaways, among several others: Understand the Course; Plan the Course; Teach the Course; Assess Student Progress; and Engage as a Member of the AP Community. In addition, specific attention will be paid to the following AP Classroom resources: unit guides, personal progress checks, AP teacher community, and the AP question bank. NMPED and Region 9 Online APSI.

Gregory Sherwin

Greg Sherwin has taught AP® Human Geography from its origins in 2000-2001 at Stevenson High School in Chicago's northern suburb and is heavily engaged in AP Human Geography community. Recently, he recently coauthored Human Geography for the AP® Course with Erin Fouberg, Alec Murphy and Paul Gray (March 2020). Previously, he teamed up with the same writers for the 10th and 11th editions of Advanced Placement Study Guide for Human Geography: People, Place and Culture. Additionally, he mentors new Human Geography teachers over the course of a year from the Northside Independent School District in San Antonio. He is also currently the Lead Consultant for the College Board and helps train trainers for teacher workshops and institutes. Mr. Sherwin served on the AP Human Geography Test Development Committee (2002-2006) and has served in a variety of leadership capacities at the annual AP® Human Geography reading. In 2015, he received a Distinguished Teaching Award from the National Council for Geography Education (NCGE). Additionally, he has teamed up with other expert AP® Human Geography teachers to create an app (iScore5) to prepare students for the exam. His cultural landscape field study assignment was recognized by the College Board and is available on the AP® Central Website.

See apnewmexico.org for registration information.

